

6516209752.txt

My wife and I listen to the instant traffic and weather on a regular basis. We have missed very bad storms from listening to the weather. We have also been able to miss traffic jams by listening to the instant traffic. We just used it in LA. California this week. This really helps out in our job and keeps us out of the way of any serious incidents. If this is taken off the broadcast it would hurt the industry. We live by the instant weather and traffic.